ON the stage Beatrice Lillie is the delightfully talented star of Charlot's Revue, which for two years has so successfully invaded America. In private life she is Lady Peel, wife of Sir Robert Peel, descendant of the great English statesman of the same name in the first half of the nineteenth

This is what Lady Peel says about one of her experiences

"When I came to this country I did not know what the popular drink was. Soon after my arrival I was offered a glass of Clicquot Club Pale Dry Ginger Ale. I liked it immediately. It has such a delicate taste and such a jolly sparkle. Between the acts and after the theatre I find it particularly welcome. Clicquot Club is indeed one more thing I like about America."

Two flavors to choose from

)OU can now get Clicquot Club Ginger Ale in two flavors. The new Pale Dry Clicquot is very delicate and subtle in taste. The Golden Clicquot is more gingery, a particularly invigorating drink-for a generation the most popular of all bottled beverages, the nation over. Clicquot Club Ginger Ale, noted for its high quality, also gives more generous quantity and at a very reasonable price. The Clicquot Club Company, Millis, Massachusetts.
